

Feb. 2, cont - -

Any more than Killings going on, as usual - & rascality in business, big business. As usual - the larger the business, the greater the graft - -

In New Jersey funerals cost $50000 - as good as the high cost of living -

It appears to be more profitable to be dishonest than honest - because power & capital are always found backing the crooked -

Same way in politics - the cost - the more profit - because politics means money - as old Eli Spear is known to have said in his time, he knew & well -

But money & bribery failed to reach Bushyhead & Lipe - as to others cannot say -

Bill & Roach young got their share as the way through - H Bushyhead & Lipe knew it - Burch & James Vanu was never given a chance - because it was known they were dangerous in such matters - Clem Vanu was another man money couldn't reach as bribes -

Capt White Catcher was free from the bribe evil - many more I could name pros & cons in such matters, some had the