

March 6, 1928 A.M. paid Corbin rent $25<sup>00</sup> for the MO -

Same says, pd Campbell grocery acct of $18<sup>28</sup> in full for Feb - 1928 -

Extra nice eve - except sharp cool wind.

Telephone acct pd for Feb. in full of months rent -

~~+~~

March 7, 1928 - 11<sup>30</sup> A.M. Wednesday.

Cloudy & dreary up to this time - no news -

The Press - James George McGraw was buried yesterday, p.m. with Pomp & Splendor, just as he should have been - at Ponca city, Okla.

Harry F. Sinclair, his bosom friend was present - Thousands bid him farewell at Tulsa -

McGraw was a good man - a man among men - in all lines of endeavor - Very wealthy -

So far, no notice of cause of his death - but his illness began with acute indigestion necessitating a surgical operation - illness of short duration -

X

~~+~~

X

March 8 - 28 - 11<sup>55</sup> A.M.

The day dreary, cloudy & rain -