Case of Sanford Boswell--a as to marriage and legiti-ma cy of child--

The essential elements necessary to give a legal status to the child or children under section 4705, R. S. are

"The marriage of the father-- and the mother.

That the child was born of that marriage"
---0---

These two facts once establish the child's legitimacy is also established, and, once legitmate, that legitimacy can not be affected by the subsequent conduct of the father and mother either jointly or singly
