

Sept 11, 1928 - 5 p m. - Tuesday

Extra quiet all day - nice day - no visitors at all - no news -

The Presidential nominees ready to engage in the battle for supremacy as to office - of Pres - Al Smith should the gov ship be on an equal footing with Hoover -

From what Raskob says as to their chances, Hoover has the lead of Smith - He thinks the best-fighter will win - but Al has his hands full politically - Pennsylvania seems to be the pivotal state - Hoover is destined to take New York & Penn is safe - Curtis is making a good fight with his whirlwind Campaign - The leader for Hoover & the G.O.P.

One question is, what will The Solid South do, no one seems to know - Not even Smith - 10-182
