This am. dreary & cloudy, Nothing doing at all - everything too quiet.

John Horn case -

John or Jim Holt was at Conley's about 1/2 hour before John was killed.
He says Conley's wife was fussing & just before he left there he heard Conley say to his wife,
"that if he couldn't get the best of him no other way, that he would kill the damn son of a b-----" no names called, simply that expression from Conley - Holt came to town at once & along side of Allens Store he met John Horn - after a short talk with him John got on his gray horse & left for Conley's leaving a barrel horse -

A bad case all around - I am of the opinion that Conley shot his wife shot John - but many hold otherwise -

Conley was drunk so Holt & Edmonds both say -
