

Sunday, Jan. 18-1920.

The day fine indeed - no news at all of any kind or from any source - both of me tolerably well - Mama has the sea-grippe or the flu - and has suffered some from it, but now recovered somewhat.

Parther Glass in yesterday with a letter from Hastings advising him on his rights to pension - & proffers all assistance on his behalf -

Wrote the Natl Tribune
Boodie too today -
