

PENSIONS—CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS.

House Bill No. 138.

AN ACT providing a pension for disabled and indigent Confederate soldiers, sailors, and their widows; providing how such pension shall be granted; creating the Board of Pension Commissioners and prescribing their duties; providing for an appropriation to carry into effect this act.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oklahoma:

Who Shall Receive Pension.

Section 1. Hereafter, every person shall receive a pension not to exceed ten ($10.00) dollars per month, who enlisted and served as a soldier or a sailor in the army or navy of the Confederate States of America, or of any of the States thereof, for a period of three months, and who is indigent and who is incapacitated for the performance of manual labor in the ordinary avocations of life, by reason of wounds, received in the discharge of his duty as such soldier or sailor, or who is now so incapacitated by reason of age, accident, or disease, and every indigent widow of such soldier or sailor remaining unmarried; provided, such soldier, sailor, or widow has resided in the State of Oklahoma for twelve (12) months prior to the passage and approval of this act; provided further, that no pension shall be paid to any widow of any soldier or sailor who wilfully and without just cause abandoned such soldier or sailor, and continued to live separately from him up to the time of his death, or any widow who has been divorced from such soldier or sailor. Such pension shall be payable quarterly beginning March first of each year.

Property Restrictions—Income.

Section 2. To constitute indigency within the meaning of this act, neither the applicant himself, nor his wife,
