

Thomas Horn case -

And any other evidence supporting the case, Mrs. Horn & B Shade to furnish means to cover cost.

The question uppermost in Mary's case is her rights as widow of Tom under general pension law, then 1890 act & subsequent acts for original as widow & soldier's accrued pension, for widow or to cover last sickness &c. expenses -

March 20-25 3 funeral fees to E. C. Howard in Mary's care - to date in all pd $2.45

3-22-25 - In the interests of the case I went - gave

3-24-25 - on to Tipton Falls - to find a Notary - round trip 2⁰⁰ & dinner 50c.

making in all $4.95 to date. expenses up to 3-24-25.

$4.95

Horn case still - March 24 1925 power atty
of J. L. S. by B. F. Shade by self & Mary Horn by X witnessed
by G. S. Blackston & J. Vann, before H. H. Moore Not. P.
3-24-25 - under seal -

to 129 -

Doubleday Page & Co
on Sub acct.

3-20-25, mailed check for 2⁰⁰ to Co - of even date
as final payment - see in file, from Co on acct. & to settle by early Nov -

National Travel Club

3-20-25 Sent 2⁰⁰
check as final on Sub,
for May - check returned rec'd 3-29-1925. no explanation any more than "disput" understand why to 126.

Nick Longworth & Alice Rosenet - were married in 1906.

Judge Parks appears to have got in his work on his man in Court.
see clipping from The Press -

Free Man Who "Sassed" Court.
Special to The World.

TANLEQUAH, April 2.—Habeas corpus proceedings instituted in the supreme court have resulted in Lee Dawes of this place, securing his liberty. Dawes, some weeks ago, was given a long term in the county jail by Judge J. T. Parks for contempt of court. Dawes is said to have "sassed" the judge on two separate occasions with the result that he received a sentence of six months in jail and a $150 fine.