Citizens of Owasso at 2 p. m. Sunday will pay tribute to Mrs. Sarah P. Smith, 85 years old, who was a native of Oklahoma and throughout her long life maintained a residence in this state.

Funeral services will be held at the Christian church at Owasso with Mowbray Undertaking company in charge.

It was in 1842, nearly 20 years before the Civil war, when Mrs. Smith was born in a rural district on the Oklahoma border near Mayville, Ark. Her parents traded at the Arkansas town but the residence was on the Oklahoma side.

After several moves within the state, Mrs. Smith took up her residence at Owasso in 1893. She at one time was active in Eastern Star work and was a member of the Christian church. Three sons, a sister, 14 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren survive.
