

Oct 31 - 1915 -

I miss my old friend Geo R. Mayfield daily - a good friend in many respects, & yet a dangerous friend in some respects.

When John died he & I was even in our financial relations & obligations to each other - of all obligations I was bound to him, was settled in City Hall over the play house long before he died - this was done by my transfer to him notes against many, many people who owed us jointly for work done for them for Emigrant-headright - & in all such notes transferred to him as