SEQUOIA NATIONAL PARK
NAME IS NOT CHANGED

(Special News Service)
Washington, July 3.—Congressman Hastings of Oklahoma, Friday prevented the changing of the name of Sequoia National park in California to that of Roosevelt-Sequoia national park. The park originally was named in honor of the old Cherokee Indian Sequoyah, or Sequoia, inventor of the Cherokee alphabet, and Hastings protested against the name being coupled up with any other. He failed to prevent the house from passing the measure, but he made such a protest in the senate that the sponsors of the bill agreed to let the name remain as before.
