

11 To the voters of this City.

There is charged up against the property of Coffeyville the appalling indebtedness of $854,000. Its interest will be over ^{or} a million more. We cannot take on any more obligation without great peril.

True, the larger fraction of this monstrous incumbrance is owing by different parts of the city, but when one's toe is wounded the whole body suffers. This hideous mortgage on the City's resources hurts every person in the city. To claim that a hospital costing $35,000, ~~and~~ with an annual interest [#] of 2,100 and endless expenses thereafter, will not add to our already