Series III:

Publications regarding the Choctaw Nation, State of Oklahoma and the United States of America. These publications are organized into three sub-series, which are categorized as follows:

Sub-series A:

Government Documents: of the Choctaw Nation, including the legislation enacted by the Choctaw Council, 1901-1905, in the format of assorted bills and proposals, and the published laws of the Choctaw Nation, as enacted by the same, 1869-1908, and including the Constitution of the Nation; of the State of Oklahoma, 1907-1908; and of the United States of America, further subdivided into the acts of Congress and of the Supreme Court, 1892-1949, and of the Department of the Interior, 1894-1916. All of the government documents listed in Sub-series A directly pertain to the Indian Territory or to the Choctaw Indians specifically.

Sub-series B:

Political Parties of the Choctaw Nation. Includes flyers, pamphlets, leaflets and booklets published by the various political parties and factions, as well as the special interests in the Choctaw Nation. All are in regard to issues and problems within or in regard to the Choctaw Nation, including elections of officials in the same.

Sub-series C:

Newspaper clippings and other miscellaneous items. The news clippings are in regard to Chief McCurtain or his policies, or those of the Tuskahoma Party, 1903-1910. Other miscellaneous items include:

1. Textbook pages on which are recorded the texts of the Choctaw-United States treaties of 1837 and 1830.
2. Scrapbook in which a large number of news clippings collected by McCurtain in regard to the same. n.d., circa 1900-1906.
