

12. The Purcell Register September 15, 1893; editorial on election of Thomas W. Hunter, Jacob Jackson, et al to Choctaw House of Representatives.
13. The Purcell Register Oct 6, 1893; editorial on Choctaw Council, selection of officers, factionalism, etc.
14. The Purcell Register February 2, 1894; editorial on Choctaw Council and general accomplishments of it.
15. Minco Minstrel August 17, 1894; editorial on election in the Choctaw Nation, election of certain members to Council, gives names and number of votes.
16. The Caddo Banner Oct 5, 1894; regarding meeting of Choctaw Council, seating of officers, prospective legislation, etc.
17. The Talihina News July 11, 1895; allotment of land.
18. The Marlow Magnet July 18, 1895; editorial on Choctaw allotment.
19. Minco Minstrel July 19, 1895; resolution by Choctaws to act apart from the Cherokees, Creeks, and Seminoles in dealing with the U.S. on the issues of tribal government, allotment, etc.
20. Minco Minstrel February 28, 1896; editorial on Choctaw and Chickasaw claims against the U.S. (see folder 4 also)
21. David Progress September 3, 1896; lists delegates and attorneys to represent Choctaw Nation before the Dawes Commission.
22. The Daily Capitol December 17, 1896; an appeal of J.J. McAlester to Green McCurtain; gives good general history of coal mining in the Choctaw Nation, leases and laws pertaining to coal, etc.
23. The Daily Capitol December 22, 1896; an agreement between the Dawes Commission and the Choctaw Nation, gives terms of agreement, provisions, etc.
24. South McAlester Capital January 28, 1897; Choctaw Treaty opposition presumably over the Dawes Commission agreements.
25. The Indian Citizen February 18, 1897; letter of C.S. Vinson to Green McCurtain regarding borrowing money to save starving Choctaws.
26. The Indian Citizen March 18, 1897; letter of C.S. Vinson to Green McCurtain regarding the legality of specific legislation dealing with coal mine leases.
27. The Marietta Monitor August 19, 1898; editorial on Choctaw proclamation by Governor