

42. South McAlester Capital March 6, 1902; regarding treaty with Dawes Commission, closing of tribal rolls.
43. South McAlester Capital April 3, 1902; copy of the agreement with the Dawes Commission.
44. South McAlester Capital June 12, 1902; editorial on election of governors.
45. South McAlester Capital June 19, 1902; editorial on Tuskahoma Party convention nominating candidates for governor.
46. The Coalgate Courier July 10, 1902; editorial on Choctaw politics.
47. The Coalgate Courier August 7, 1902; article regarding the victory of T.W. Hunter as governor over Green McCurtain; has vote tallies by town.
48. South McAlester Capital Oct 2, 1902; regarding the ratification on the Dawes agreement by the Choctaw people; gives vote count by County.
49. South McAlester News Oct 9, 1902; has all the details about the disputed governor's election.
50. Tahlequah Arrow Oct 25, 1902; regarding the seating of McCurtain as governor.
51. South McAlester Capital February 19, 1903; general political news.

Box 47

1. The Indian Citizen June 13, 1903; letter of L.W. Oakes to Green McCurtain regarding the dispossession of valuable timber and agricultural lands from Indians.
2. The Indian Citizen June 18, 1903; letter of L.W. Oakes to Green McCurtain regarding the dispossession of valuable timber and agricultural lands from Indians.
3. The Indian Citizen June 18, 1903; platform of the Tuskahoma Party.
4. The Indian Citizen July 9, 1903; letter of L.W. Oakes to Green McCurtain regarding the dispossession of valuable timber and agricultural lands from Indians.
5. The Indian Citizen July 16, 1903; editorial on the Choctaw Protective Party (opposition party to Tuskahoma Party).
6. The Indian Citizen July 23, 1903; letter of John Proviso to Green McCurtain and G.W. Dukes; regarding public debate between McCurtain and former governor Dukes over corruption, tribal politics, etc.
7. South McAlester Capital July 7, 1904; laws and explanations concerning the alienation of tribal and individual land titles.