

40. Johnston County Capital-Democrat May 25, 1916; regarding work of the competency commission in determining if Indians were competent, and therefore able to have full control of their property.
41. The Ardmore Statesman December 18, 1919; regarding settlement of mineral rights
42. Capital-Democrat July 21, 1921; per capita payments for Choctaws and Chickasaws (amount).
43. Ardmore Statesman February 14, 1924; per capita payments for Choctaws and Chickasaws (amount).
44. Johnston County Democrat June 10, 1926; organization of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Protective Association.
45. The Daily Oklahoman March 20, 1927; regarding Choctaw law enforcement and the old court at Mayhew (Mayhew court ground).
46. The Daily Oklahoman January 28, 1934; regarding John Collier and the new process of selecting tribal leaders.
47. The Daily Oklahoman n.d.; article by Muriel Wright entitled "The Old Choctaw Indian Capitol at Tuskahoma, Oklahoma."
48. The Daily Oklahoman March 22, 1936; Ghost Towns of the Choctaw Nation by W.B. Morrison. discusses Armstrong Academy (Chahta Tamaha)
49. "A Story of Choctaw Chiefs" by Peter J. Hudson, original copy in F.S. Barde Collection at Oklahoma Historical Society, discusses political makeup of tribe, also traces the history of each chief.
50. "Editorial on Choctaws and Chickasaws" from original in the F.S. Barde Collection at Oklahoma Historical Society. discusses tribal dispute over governor's office by rival claimants (after death of Green McCurtain), per capita payments, etc.
51. "Memorial in Honor of Allen Wright, Basil Le Flore and J.F. McCurtain" from an original in the possession of Muriel Wright; generally praises their accomplishments.

Box 48

1. File contains several documents relative to the survey of the boundary between the Choctaw Nation and Arkansas, most notably the field notes of the 1825 survey.
2. Resolution by the Choctaw Council requesting the governor to write a letter to the President to empower a delegation to petition Choctaw requests in Washington, to give the agent supervisory control over the Leased District, etc. November 4, 1857.