

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

GENERAL NATIVE AMERICAN MANUSCRIPT COLLECTIONS

Batthey, Thomas C.
Papers 1824-1897
.33 foot

Teacher. Batthey's diaries (1872-1884) and correspondence with family members (1873-1874) regarding his experience as a teacher of Indians, along with a book (1876) by Batthey entitled Life and Adventures of a Quaker Among the Indians and containing substantial manuscript revision.

Box 1

Folder:

1. Andres Martinez to Debora C. Batthey, March 30, 1897. From Methvin Institute; expresses appreciation to Batthey for Batthey's work among the Indians.
2. Batthey, Debora C., Some Account of the Last Illness of Thomas Batthey, Columbia, Ohio: Wilson Edgerton, 1897. 12 pages.
3. "The Story of White Wolf, A Comanche Chief," tells of White Wolf's conversion to Christianity. 4 pages.
4. Miscellaneous copies of The Day-Star, edited by A.F. Foster, Mr. Vernon, Iowa.

(a) Vol. II August 1887. Topics discussed:

1. To Those Receiving Papers
2. An Open Letter to President Cleveland
3. Dear Brother...
4. Extracts from Essay by Harris Knight
5. A Superstition
6. Have Patience
7. Christians Pray More
8. A Letter from Jamaica