

- 265. Editorial on Porter, separate statehood and the Keetoowah Society, September 1, 1905.
- 266. Message of Porter to the council, largely on land allotments, their problems, schools, and suggested guardianship for Indian interests following dissolution of Indian tribal government in 1906, October 4, 1905.
- 267. Editorial on Porter's message, October 6, 1905.
- 268. Item on struggle over separate statehood, October 12, 1905.
- 269. Editorial on message of Porter, October 12, 1905.
- 270. Editorial on message of Porter, October 13, 1905.
- 271. Same as above.
- 272. Editorial on Porter, concerning matter above, of A. P. Murphy vs. Porter case, October 19, 1905.
- 273. Editorial on Porter favoring separate statehood at the Sequoyah Convention, October 19, 1905.
- 274. Item on the last Creek Council, October 20, 1905.

BOX 5

Folder:

- 275. Editorial on Creek Council of Porter, October 27, 1905.
- 276. Porter introduced a bill providing that lands of minors in the Creek Nation not be taxed during minority, November 2, 1905.
- 277. Editorial on Porter, regarding instruction to Creek delegation to Washington, November 3, 1905.
- 278. Resolution approved by Porter on statehood, November 3, 1905.
- 279. Editorial on Porter, his conflict with Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock regarding Creek loyalty claims, November 3, 1905.
- 280. Bill introduced by Porter, to relieve minors' lands of taxation, November 3, 1905.
- 281. Editorial on Porter, his inquiry into why U.S. government refused to pay any more loyalty claims to Creeks, November 3, 1905.