

41. Correspondence from J. S. Murrow to S. Buckley re: supplies ordered for Seminoles loyal to the Confederacy, December 1862.
42. Correspondence from Peter Pitchlynn to Thompson McKenney re: personal, February 18, 1848.
43. Correspondence from R. M. Jones to Thompson McKenney, October 15, 1849.
44. Correspondence from Israel Folsom to Colonel Thompson McKenney re: the desirability of just one principal chief for the Choctaws, rather than four, June 3, 1850.
45. Correspondence from Israel Folsom to Thompson McKenney re: rejecting the treaty with the U. S. and the Chickasaws, August 8, 1855.
46. Correspondence from Israel Folsom to Thompson McKenney re: early Choctaw history, January 26, 1849. Incomplete.
47. Correspondence from Stand Watie to "Sally" re: the Battle of Cabin Creek, July 12, 1863.
48. Genealogy of David Folsom.
49. Treaty (printed) between the U. S. and the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes, 1855.
50. Document in both English and Choctaw re: official business concerning payments for relief of the Choctaw refugees. Also, a claim of Cole Nelson for services rendered to the Choctaw refugees in 1864-1865, with endorsements by Peter Pitchlynn and Basil LeFlore, and an act for "Relief of Nelson," November 1, 1875.
51. Bill #4 of the Choctaw National Council, authorizing an investigation of Forbes LeFlore, former Superintendent of Public Schools, October 21, 1874.
52. Correspondence from H. Balentine to ---- Ward re: Balentine's trip east and preaching in various places in the New York-Connecticut area, his trip back to Doakesville, arrival and work in the mission and school, difficulties encountered by the School Superintendent's wife in running and Boarding School, and some questions, August 5, 1856.
53. Correspondence from N. Cochraner, County and Probate Clerk of Blue County, C. N., to Mrs. Lovica Nail Folsom, appointing her as administratrix of the estate of her husband, Reverend Israel Folsom, January 2, 1871.
54. Correspondence C. E. Nelson to Reverend H. B. Cushman, containing an autobiographical sketch of Nelson, 1831-1891, with a brief note by Victor M. Locke, October 13, 1891.
55. Correspondence from David Folsom to Reverend Cyrus Byington re: missionaries and their work in the Choctaw Nation, and removal, July 23, 1821.