

- c. Britt Willis memoirs of his days in Indian Territory, Chickasaw Nation; discusses general history from 1857 to an unknown date; tribal government; various Chickasaw laws, anecdotes, prominent families, etc.
- 3. Correspondence dated 1889 concerning the Indian Territorial Convention.
- 4. Correspondence dated 1891; miscellaneous.
- 5. Correspondence dated 1892; most sent to Messrs. Lane, Kent and Kelley.
- 6. Correspondence dated 1893; business correspondence re: promotion of business interests in Guthrie, OK.
- 7. Correspondence dated 1894.
- 8. Correspondence dated 1895.
- 9. Correspondence dated 1901.
- 10. Financial matters, mostly checks.
- 11. Legal material, mortgage release, 1896.
- 12. Table of classification of lands and appraised value per acre in Cherokee Nation.
- 13-17. Correspondence between Edwin Ludlow and his wife, 1894-1902; Ludlow lived in Hartshorne, I.T., but was also General Superintendent for the Mexican Coal and Coke Company.
- 18. Correspondence between Chester Howe and Azel Hatch, attorneys, 1902; re: allotment of land among Cherokees and Choctaws.

Two copies of the Atoka Agreement.

Ten miscellaneous postcards.
- 19.
 - a. Correspondence dated August 30-31, 1874, from a J. J. Carnes in Georgetown, TX, writing to his wife concerning the business and cotton crop prospects for Texas that year.
 - b. Correspondence dated March 30, 1884, which handwriting comparison suggests was written by a Mary Carnes of Forrest City, Ark. to her sister. Letter discusses births, deaths, weather, etc. during the winter in the district.
 - c. Correspondence from J. J. Carnes on November 29, 1874, from Georgetown, TX, writing to his wife at their home discussing weather and the wife's health.