

31. Biographical sketch of Seminoles, Jan. 6, 1905.
32. Editorial on J. F. Brown and C. L. Long, regarding Brown's contribution to the Seminoles, Feb. 2, 1905.
33. News item on J. F. Brown, as ex-governor succeeding impeached governor Harrison, May 6, 1905.
34. News item on re-election of J. F. Brown as principal chief of Seminoles, May 11, 1905.
35. News item on re-election of J. F. Brown as principal chief of the Seminoles, May 12, 1905.
36. Interview with J. F. Brown regarding his alleged appointment as attorney for the Seminoles and on oil leases, May 25, 1905.
37. Editorial on J. F. Brown and his opinions on land allotment, Sept. 14, 1905.
38. Editorial on J. F. Brown regarding statehood, December 15, 1905.
39. Editorial on J. F. Brown, opposing statehood with Oklahoma, December 28, 1905.
40. Editorial on J. F. Brown, on distributing land allotments to Seminole infants, December 29, 1905.
41. Editorial on home of J. F. Brown, regarding his parents and place of birth, December 30, 1905.
42. Editorial on J. F. Brown and his distribution of funds to loyal Seminoles, Jan. 25, 1906.
43. Editorial on J. F. Brown and his services as governor of the Seminoles, April 5, 1906.
44. Editorial on J. F. Brown regarding his role in distributing government payment to loyal Seminoles for losses sustained by them during the Civil War, April 27, 1906.
45. Editorial on J. F. Brown and Seminole schools, October 4, 1906.
46. Editorial on Seminole schools, November 12, 1906.
47. Biographical sketch of John Brown, November, 1906.
48. Editorial on J. F. Brown regarding the old Brown store, December 20, 1906.
49. News item on J. F. Brown and land allotment settlements of Seminoles, Jan. 17, 1907.
50. Editorial on J. F. Brown and his signing of deeds to allotments in the Seminole Nation, January 25, 1907.
51. News item on J. F. Brown regarding hopes for election as a first U.S. senator from Oklahoma, March 7, 1907.