

FF3 Mayes to Maude: The flood of 1902, the current flood, scarlet fever, and the railroad. 1902

FF4 Bee to Maude: Scarlet fever, clothes, grass fight, Buckskin Bill's Wild West Show, a trip to Minnesota, and Bee when a freshman at Kansas University. 1902

FF5 Maude to Bee: Death of Uncle Isaac. 1902

BX3 Correspondence

FF1 Maude to Bee: Kaw River damage. 1903

FF2 Maude to Bee: Wild West Show in Stroud, Grandpa Keokuk's pneumonia, the brown book contest, and Guy Whistler in military school. 1903

FF3 Mayes to Maude: Weather and crops, the railroad, July Fourth festivities at Sparks, oil well drilling, and Christmas. 1903

FF4 Bee to Maude: Frank Keokuk, Woodbury's Hair Tonic, Lawrence, Kansas flood, civil service exams, and visiting clergy determine degree of Indian blood of people. 1903

FF5 Mother Mayes to Maude, Grandma Mayes to Don, Mayes to Maude: Railroad to Okmulgee surveyed, measles causing death, and Lincoln County Producer's Association. 1895-1903

BX4 Correspondence

FF1 Bee to Maude: Indian costumes, the Frisco Railroad, retrieving runaways. 1904

FF2 Bee to Maude: Going to Chicago to study harp, first ride in an automobile, the World's Fair, concert by John Philip Sousa's band, ride on a camel, and the Prince Pu Lun. 1904

FF3 Bee to Maude: Work in St. Louis, Hagenbeck's Animal Show, Chilocco Indian School, and Miss Tonner, the daughter of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. 1904

FF4 Maude to Bee: Christmas, the World's Fair, Indian dance on the North Fork River, and a bill in Congress. 1904

FF5 Mayes to Maude: Lice and the measles, the World's Fair, and bridges and crops washed away in flooding. 1904

BX5 Correspondence

FF1 Mayes to Maude: Mrs. Riley and Fred Neal. 1905