

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

SEMINOLE NATION MANUSCRIPT COLLECTIONS

Impson, Hiram
Letter 1940
1 item

Collector. A letter (1940) written by Paul McKennon, recounting his experiences in the Seminole Nation (1894-1896) with an explanation of how criminals were punished under Seminole law.

Two copies of a letter from Paul McKennon of Clarksville, Arkansas to R.L. Kidd, a former newspaperman in Poteau, Oklahoma. This letter contains explanations of how criminals were punished under Seminole law (1940).