

Tentative Outline of December Meeting Program

1933

Wednesday—December 6

4:00 P. M.

Reception to members and friends of the Taylor Society.

8:00 P. M. Symposium

"An Interpretive Forecast on NRA."

Led by Ordway Tead, Editor of economic and business books, Harper & Brothers, and Lecturer on personnel subjects, Columbia University, New York.

Thursday—December 7

9:30 A. M.

Simultaneous Round Table Discussions of Various Aspects of Scientific Management.

I. "The Working of Scientific Management."

Led by Arthur B. Green, Management Engineer, Needham, Mass.

II. "Scientific Management in College Administration."

Led by P. E. Henderson, Comptroller, Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

III. "Major Elements of Production, Research, Standardization and Control."

Led by King Hathaway, Consulting Engineer, New York.

12:30 P. M.

Program of Stevens Institute of Technology for the Semi-Centennial Celebration of Taylor's graduation. Entire program, noon, afternoon and evening will be held at Hoboken, N. J. (Make reservations for luncheon or dinner at the Taylor Society Annual Meeting headquarters, Hotel Pennsylvania, New York.)

12:30 P. M.

There will be three luncheon parties: Castle Stevens, Table d'hôte ($1.00) Meyer's Hotel, Hudson and Third Streets, Table d'hôte ($1.25). A la Carte, if preferred. Hof Brau Haus, River and Second Streets, Table d'hôte ($1.25). A la Carte, if preferred.

All sessions except those under the auspices of Stevens Institute of Technology will be held in the Small Ball Room and Adjacent Rooms of the Hotel Pennsylvania, Seventh Avenue and 33rd Street, New York. Meetings of the Taylor Society are an open forum; anyone interested is asked to attend.

2:00 P. M.

Remarks at metal cutting demonstration, reminiscences, opinions and directions, by Carl G. Barth, Consulting Engineer (retired), Philadelphia.

4:30 P. M.

Sketch by Stevens Dramatic Society in the Auditorium, "The Young Man from Philadelphia."

5:00-6:00 P. M.

Reception and tea at Hoxie House in honor of Mrs. Frederick Winslow Taylor.

6:30 P. M.

Dinner. At Castle Stevens, Meyer's Hotel or Hof Brau Haus. Table d'hôte, $1.50 for those making reservation before 4:00 P. M.

8:30 P. M.

Evening Program in the Auditorium. Presiding Officer—Harvey Nathaniel Davis, President of Stevens Institute of Technology.

Speakers—Stanley King, President, Amherst College, Amherst, Mass., Henry P. Kendall, President, The Kendall Company, Boston, and Past-President of the Taylor Society.

Friday—December 8

9:30 A. M.

A Program on Marketing Problems by American Marketing Society.

2:30 P. M.

"The Management of An Industry as Expressed in the Code of the Handkerchief Industry."

Speakers—Milton C. Herrmann, President, The Herrmann Handkerchief Co., New York, and E. Johnston Coil, New York.

6:45 P. M. Annual Dinner.

Guest of Honor and Speaker—Mr. Fred Henderson of Norwich, England, Author of "The Economic Consequences of Power Production" and "Money Power and Human Life." Mr. Henderson will speak on "The Economic Consequences of Power Production."

BULLETIN OF THE

TAYLOR SOCIETY

AN INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY TO PROMOTE THE SCIENCE AND THE ART OF ADMINISTRATION AND OF MANAGEMENT

TWO PAPERS ON NRA

In Interpretive Forecast of the NRA

By Ordway Tead

Discussion by Benjamin A. Javits

A Plan for the Management of an Industry as Expressed in the Code of the Handkerchief Industry

By Milton C. Herrmann and E. Johnston Coil

Engineering Societies Building
29 W. Thirty-Ninth St.
New York

AUGUST, 1933

VOL. XVIII, NO. 4