

BULLETIN OF THE

TAYLOR SOCIETY

A SOCIETY TO PROMOTE THE SCIENCE AND THE
ART OF ADMINISTRATION AND OF MANAGEMENT

Containing

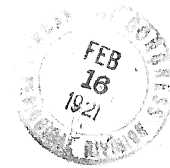

THE THREE-SHIFT SYSTEM IN THE STEEL INDUSTRY

By Horace B. Drury

A STUDY IN THE ENGINEERING OF MEN

"The art of management. . . . No concise definition can fully describe an art, but the relations between employers and men form without question the most important part of this art." Frederick W. Taylor in Shop Management, p. 21.

Hohokus, N. J.
and Engineering Societies Building
29 W. Thirty-Ninth St.,
New York

FEBRUARY, 1921

VOL. VI., No. 1