Dear Chief Mankiller,

Greetings. I'm quite sure that you are very busy, so I will keep this letter as brief as possible. As a long-time admirer of you and your unique place in history as chief of the Cherokee Nation, I would like to ask for your autograph (or if possible, a signed photograph of you). Though I suspect that you have many more pressing things to do, could you possibly send me your autograph? I certainly would appreciate it!

I hope all is well with you, and wish you every success in every present and future venture, both personal and professional. Many thanks in advance.

Yours Sincerely,
