

and Lamont (Monty) Lindstrom, Tulsa University

- Eastern and Western Europe
Coordinator: Michael Herzfeld, Harvard.

PART V: Additional Materials (10 pages)

- Bibliography: books, articles, unpublished essays from 1992.
- Organizations
- Index/cross-references/listing of all groups
- Contributors
- About Cultural Survival

PART VI: Afterword (1-2 pages) By Marc Miller and/or David Maybury-Lewis

Schedule:

To stores September 1 for official release October 24 in the Cultural Survival Indigenous Rights Campaign. It will be released in three formats. Beacon Press will publish the full report as a book. A 64-page excerpt will go to Cultural Survival members as the Fall 1993 Cultural Survival Quarterly. A six-page summary will appear in Action for Cultural Survival.

December 1992-February 1993: research on case studies, short items, and graphics; finalize contents. Interns working with CCS and publications begin work on appendices. Guest contributors begin regional reviews.

March-April 1993: revise and edit articles; write and edit short items, collect graphic elements

May 1, 1993: package ready for production

September 1993: release

Distribution:

Policy makers on international issues in the United States, other developed countries, international organizations, including public officials, consultants, advisory bodies, etc.--people with power and who need to know the analysis and information in this report

Academics, indigenous organizations and individuals, community leaders
CS members

Media, Others concerned with human rights, indigenous affairs, general public, etc.