PUBLIC COMMENTS

Peggy Glave stated that during the November Meeting of "STOP" (Stop and Start Thinking of People), the members presented their Ward Commissioner with a petition with approximately 400 signatures and a letter from the staff of Ann J. Kellogg School demanding the closing down of known drug houses around the School. The houses in question have been receiving numerous acts of violence. She also stated that she has been informed that the City is considering buying a hotel near Ann J. Kellogg School to be used as a half-way house. She stated that the property owners and parents of students in the Ann J. Kellogg School District will not tolerate another institution in their neighborhood.

Pearl Gray Brown stated that she agreed with "STOP" in their fight against drugs, but felt that a half-way house in a residential community gives a person the opportunity to mingle with people they will be with for the remainder of their lives.

Frank Cable stated that the street crews came out and patched his driveway and did a beautiful job.

Robert Walters, owner of a business located at 237 W. Michigan Avenue, concurred with Peggy Glave, and also expressed concern about being invaded by boarded up structures. He stated that there is one building that has been partially torn down all summer and felt the property owner should be
