March 19, 1993

Dear Wilma:

On May 17, 1993 I will be hosting a day in Rapid City, South Dakota to commemorate the 25th anniversary of Robert F. Kennedy's "Vision for America".

Mr. Kennedy started his campaign for the Presidency in March, 25 years ago.

He visited the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in May of 1968.

I am inviting you to sit on a panel discussion of Robert F. Kennedy's dreams of improving the economic and social condition on Indian Reservations.

The panel will be preceded by a film on the life of Mr. Kennedy and the panel discussion in front of an audience, will follow.

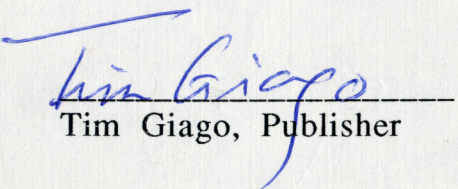

Bobby Kennedy Jr. will co-host the anniversary with me.

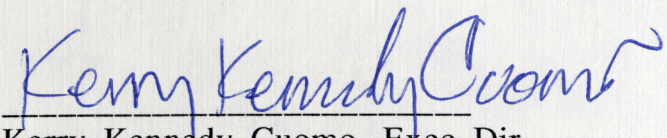

Please let me know if you can join us in the celebration to the life of a man who shared the vision of the American Indian.

Your expenses will be taken care of by the Robert F. Kennedy Foundation.

Kerry Kennedy Cuomo will forward this letter to you. Please consider this invitation.

Respectfully,

Tim Giago, Publisher
