

DICK NOONAN for State Representative District 24

An 18-year Resident of Lake Oswego

- ◆ Involved parent of one daughter, two sons and their four children.
- ◆ Active participant in local issues, American Legion Baseball sponsor, and volunteer riding and marksmanship coach.

A Patriot

- ◆ 20 years as an Airborne Infantry Officer in the US Army. Overseas tours in Korea, West Berlin, Germany and the Vietnam War.
- ◆ Appointed by Secretary of Labor Lynn Martin as the Secretary's Representative for Region 10 during President Bush's administration.

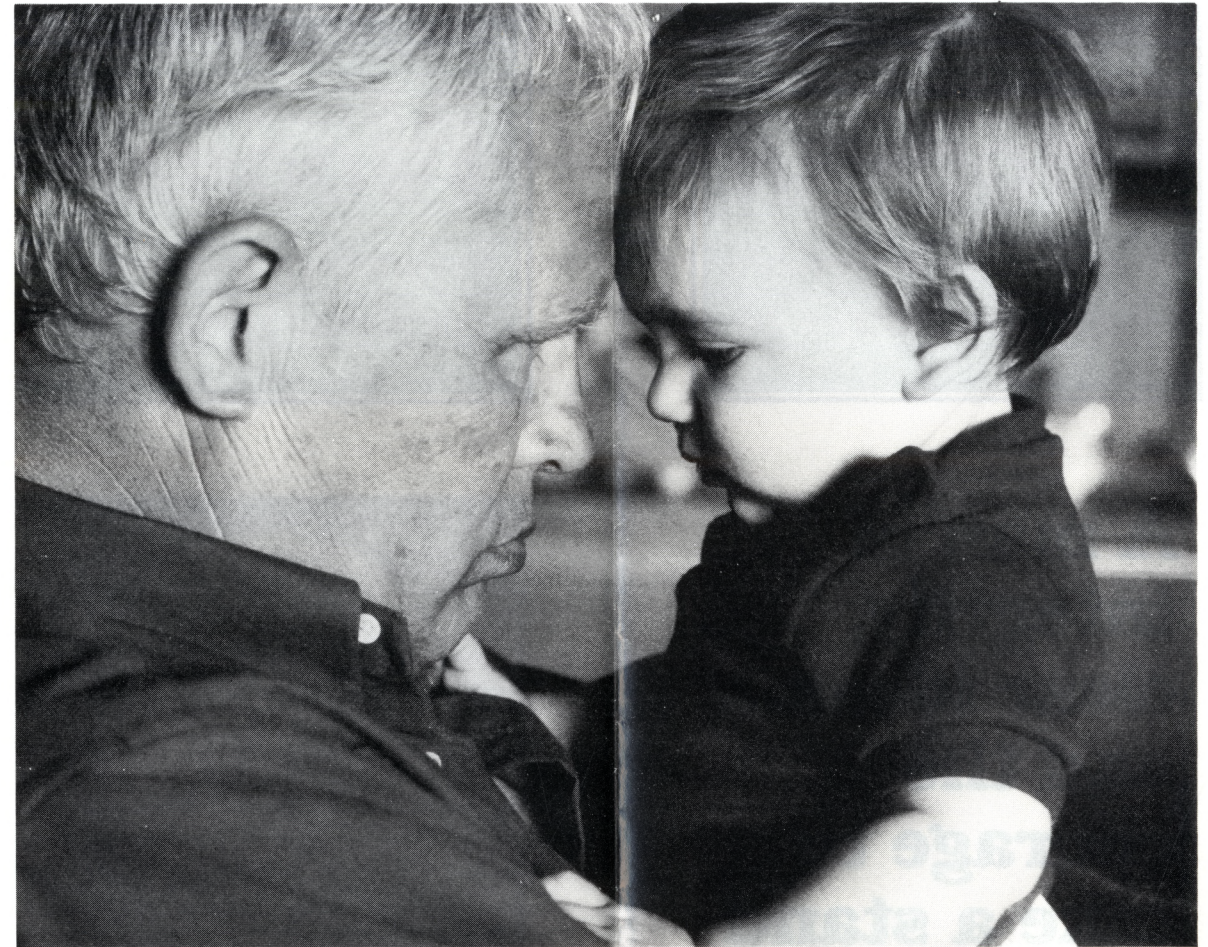

A Businessman

- ◆ Director of 44 Blue Productions, which airs a series on The Discovery Channel and will present a network movie-of-the week in 1995.
- ◆ Executive Director of the Oregon Republican Party for two years.
- ◆ University Human Resources Director.

A Community Leader

- ◆ Vice President, Oregon Film & Video Foundation
- ◆ Department of Defense, Employer Support of Guard and Reserve

"My reason for seeking public office is simple: I want to pass on to our children, and our grandchildren, an Oregon they will be proud of . . . a community where they can raise and educate their children in confidence and safety."

Let's work this out together . . . Grandpa.

A Women's Issues Advocate

- ◆ White House appointee to the Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Services.
- ◆ Co-founder of Oregon Republican Coalition for Choice.
- ◆ Creator of a feature film about Red Cross women volunteers during the Vietnam War.

ELECT

DICK NOONAN

State Representative
District 24