I hope my letter finds you and your family well. and that you will pardon my intrusion into your private life. I am currently living in Keflavik Iceland and working at the U.S.O. Not long ago an auction was held and a Cook Book signed by you was sold. I bid on it but regrettably was out bid. I have been told that I am of Cherokee descent but as I am adopted I cannot say with certainty to what degree. I have always believed what was in ones heart was what mattered most. I have seen various articles about you in magazines over the years. I have
