

American Indian Ambassadors Program:
Medicine Pathways for the Future

AGENDA

First Gathering
February 21-27, 1994
Neah Bay, Washington

Monday, February 21, 1994

- 1:00 - 5:00 pm      Arrival of Ambassadors and Advisors to Port Angeles Airport (AIO Staff will be waiting for arrivals in the baggage claim area.
Transportation to the Cape Flattery Center has been arranged.)
- 5:00 - 6:00 pm      Travel by van to the Cape Flattery Center - 206/645-2251
- 6:30 pm              Dinner at Cape Flattery Center Cafe
Opening Ceremony and Introductions

Tuesday, February 22, 1994

- 7:30 - 8:30 am      Breakfast at Cape Flattery Center Cafe
- 9:00 am              Introduction and Overview of the Program
by LaDonna Harris, President and Laura Harris, Projects Director
Cape Flattery Center - Large Conference Room
- 10:00 am            Group Discussion -- "Where did you get your medicine?"
- 12:30 - 1:30 pm    Lunch at Cape Flattery Center Cafe
- 1:45 pm              Continue Discussion of "Where did you get your medicine?"
Introduction of the Tribal Issues Management System (TIMS)
by LaDonna Harris, Laura Harris and Ben Broome (Professor of Communications, George Mason University)
- 3:30 pm              Workshop on Family/Community History with LaDonna Harris, Mary Jo Butterfield (Community Service Director, Makah Tribe), and Rosalyn LaPier (Child and Family Law Project Coordinator, NAES College)
- 5:30 - 6:30 pm      Dinner at Cape Flattery Center Cafe
- 7:00 pm              Community Reception at Community Hall