I put this case before you, Chief since you are the leader of the Cherokee Nation. While a judgement in Florida that would allow me to pursue her and obtain restitution, I feel would rather have you decide her fate. I will abide by whatever decision you offer. My preference is that you sanction her in some way that would prevent her from having a of honor until she pays her debt to us both emotionally and financially. I feel she owes an apology and an explanation. I would also appreciate a payment plan, however small, good faith. Until that restitution is made, I would prefer that she not be held up as a
