of virtue and accomplishment to her people. Incidentally, she had lied about her educational credentials. She does not hold a Master's degree or a Ph.D as she often alleges. In fact, she still has credits to complete on her undergraduate degree from a college in Alabama. I believe only her nursing certification is valid.

As you will be in Tallahassee in late January for the Distinguished Lecture Series which I will attend, I can provide you with all the documentation required regarding my claim at that time or mail you whatever you wish in advance. Please let me know your preference.

I would appreciate any attention that you are willing to give to this dispute and hope that a reasonable settlement can be made.

Thank you so much for your time and attention and I look forward to hearing from you and seeing you in January.

Sincerely,

Lisa D. Bentsen, MSW
