

was vice chief of the Cherokee Nation around the turn of the century - he was also involved with various tribal committees, including the Medical Board. He interpreted for both the Dawes Commission & the Simon Miller Applications.
My uncle's grandfather was C.J. Harris, chief at the same time. I am related to Joan Hill, & that brings me to what I wanted to tell you about.

I am a composer & musician (see article in Nov. Cherokee Advocate) my style of music can be classified as "new age." The project I am currently working on
