

be doing is taking money at the door. This, to me, would be a very, very degrading job. Although there is nothing wrong with this line of work, the money made will still pay the bills, but in all honesty I would be ashamed to tell my children and my family that I work in this kind of establishment. What shall I do? I wish we could converse face to face. I need advice to help make the right decision. This letter is rather personal, but I have no one else to talk to. Please, disregard this letter if you find it too personal. I shall understand completely, but if there is anything you can do please let me know. I know you don't know me, nor do I know you personally, but you do have my utmost respect and confidence you will remain our great leader of the Cherokees.

Thank you very much for your time in your busy schedule. Please keep this confidential. God bless & keep you well.

Sincerely,
Doris J. Rapen
