

WHO ARE THE KING'S DAUGHTERS AND SONS?

The International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons is an international and interdenominational organization of Christian men and women dedicated to service in Christ's name.

Its three-fold program is Religious, Educational and Philanthropic, with a purpose of training its members as well as others for Christian Service. Its aim is "Not to be ministered unto but to minister." Mark 10:45.

WHAT DO THEY DO?

Through its departments the Order promotes a work of Christian love, the highest ideals of Christian living and thinking and lends a hand to every good cause.

Its 39 Branches in the United States and Canada support ministries for the aging, the handicapped and underprivileged with homes, hospitals, youth camps and day care centers.

Through its Scholarship Program, the Order offers financial aid to the education of North American Indian youth, overseas students, and those seeking training in Christian leadership and the ministry. Scholarships are also offered in the field of health i.e. doctors, dentist, nurses, technicians, etc.

The Chautauqua Scholarship Program was started in 1920. Scholarships are given from the Order and the various Branches to young adults of high ideals and standards, who would profit by the many fine opportunities offered by the Chautauqua Institution.
