

The American Indian people said all of Mother Earth's creations were in relationship and need each other; just like a table top needs its legs in order to be complete.

Imagine*****a beginning. Read the 'Code of Sacred Relationship Reminder Book' in the mornings. Each reminder will guide your behavior. Remember you are connected with all the Starchildren who are reading and doing the same thing. This is POWER.

Imagine ***** you are a part of a powerful 'Gang' where you are free from racism, sexism and abuse of power. Mother Earth, Father Sky and all creation are free from disrespect.

***** I imagined a vision one night while I was watching the Starpeople play with the Moon, being very very quiet and listening for the heartbeat of the Great Mystery. The vision was children of all races in non-violent happy play. The Treepeople were free from violations and graffiti. The beaches were free of litter and broken glass. Father Sky was free of smog, and the lakes were free of pollution. The Starpeople began to form the words "it's time to forgive and teach the Children to honor one another."

So... what I imagined I created.
