

HONOR GANG'S MISSION STATEMENT

Mission statement for the Honor Gang:

To communicate in a non-violent manner through speech, touch, actions, play, education, entertainment and caregiving. To positively influence the self worth of people who come into contact with us. To live by principles for the benefit of future generations. To respect all cultures and honor their differences. To respect both female and male genders. To remember what I believe about myself and others creates our world. To know in my heart that we are connected with all creation.
