Dear Chief Mankiller:

My warmest congratulations to you for your inclusion in the National Women's Hall of Fame in Seneca Falls, NY.

You are richly deserving of the recognition and the honor.

Incidentally, the current president of the Native American Student organization on the Oklahoma City University campus, Wade Blevins, from Jay, Oklahoma, has produced five of a projected ten volumes of children's stories taken from tales his Cherokee grandmother told him. They are mavelous. Enclosed is a photocopy of one of the title pages.

Again, my congratulations to you.

Sincerely,

A
Jerald C. Walker
President
