Dear Wilma:

I enjoyed my participation in the International Indian Council.

You were both wise and bold to call into being the International Indian Council.

A slightly more elaborate version of the enclosed address will appear in a volume of essays, Alternate Views of Oklahoma History: The Oklahoma You Never Knew, to be published this fall by the OU Press.

As I suggested at Western Hills, allow me some mystery and send me your most recent biographical sketch.

Thanks for convening the International Indian Council.

Sincerely,

Jerald C. Walker
President

P.S. The enclosed materials will update you on events and development hereabouts.
