Dear Chief Mankiller:

Thank you for providing Ralph Keen and me an opportunity to visit with you in your office Tuesday morning. I believe that our discussions concerning matters of mutual concern were beneficial and productive. I also feel very strongly that lines of communication between our offices should remain open and available. In this respect, I would welcome a call from you or any member of your staff at anytime or for any purpose that might be of some benefit to you and the Cherokee Nation.

Let me take this means of extending to you congratulations on the honors you continue to receive and so richly deserve.

Respectfully,

JOHN RALEY
United States Attorney
