"COMMITTEE OF 50"

Philanthropic leaders in ensuring safe, fair and full participation in South Africa's first free, universal suffrage election.

The "Committee of 50" is an exceptional opportunity for high impact philanthropic leadership in behalf of voter education, registration and participation activities in South Africa. To achieve SAFE's extraordinary goal of raising $10 million in time to make a purposeful impact in South Africa's democratic future requires an extraordinary strategy.

The "Committee of 50" is a select group of capable individual, corporate and foundation donors contributing $50,000 or more to the SAFE effort. We are firmly convinced that, together, we can reach our goal of at least $10 million.

All members of the "Committee of 50" will be acknowledged in SAFE publications, and will receive special briefings concerning the events of South Africa's unfolding democracy. The effectiveness of SAFE in helping to promote the first democratic elections in South Africa will be remembered for years to come. Members of the "Committee of 50," individually and as a group, will share a distinct association with this historic moment and the South African people.
