

MERRY CHRISTMAS SUNDAY 5/24/93

Mon, 3:00pm

Wilma,

My son, Warren, went through commencement at Bacone yesterday. It's not a bachelor's degree in Rad. Tech like OU's, but he's still on the path towards it. (Bacone was good to him & for him)

FYI I am sending a confidential letter fr-the office of Civ. Rights to Warren. The OCR just called. They're taking Warren's case!

Thanks for your support.

Merry

P.S. OU has not required him to come in for a campus hearing yet
