Dear Chief Nankiller,

I hope you and your husband have a happy holiday season.

I read your book and really enjoyed it. Also it is interesting that my grandfather (James Lusk (Co)) was from Waukilla too - I never knew him because he died of kidney disease when my dad was 7. At that time my grandparents lived in the Goingsnake district on Grandma Celia Tidwell's allotment. After he died, Celia lost her land & moved to Waukilla & supported them by doing washing for others in an
