

3. Women's Health Movement

Allocate a minimum of 20 percent of available resources for women's health and reproductive rights organizations to strengthen their activities and work toward the goals specified in this declaration.

4. Accountability Mechanisms

Support women's rights and health advocacy groups, and other nongovernmental mechanisms, mandated by and accountable to women, at national and international levels, to:

- investigate and seek redress for abuses or infringements of women's and men's reproductive rights;
- analyze the allocation of resources to reproductive health and rights, and pursue revisions where necessary;
- identify inadequacies or gaps in policies, programs, information and services and recommend improvements;
- document and publicize progress.

Meeting these priority conditions will ensure women's reproductive health and their fundamental right to decide whether, when and how many children to have. Such commitment will also ensure just, humane and effective development and population policies that will attract a broad base of political support.

For information contact the International Women's Health Coalition, 24 East 21st Street, New York, New York 10010, tel: 212-979-8500, fax: 212-979-9009.