

of embellishment. As I recall, Professor Esparza spoke to me in January not February. I do not view this as a counseling session as he would have you believe in the first paragraph of his June 26, 1992 letter to me. (Professor Curcio's first paragraph in her June 29, 1992, letter is verbatim.)

March ?, 1992- Radiologic Technology Multi-disciplinary Seminar for All Students, 4:10pm, Presentations by Seniors -

Professor Curcio called students at their clinical sites telling them of the seminar at 4:10 pm. She did not call me. I arrived in the Wilemann Auditorium at 4:05 pm with Bobby Vo. As soon as I walked in, seemingly out of no where, Professor Curcio came rushing up to me and very forcefully pushed me from the back in the kidney area and in a loud, angry, hostile tone said, "You're late! This is unacceptable! This is unacceptable!" She continued to harass me by repeating herself as I hurriedly tried to find an empty seat. I spotted one and she followed me up the aisle. I shuffled my way towards the upper section and when I was seated she again yelled (from the aisle) over the heads of the other students, "You're late! This is unacceptable." I was not late. The program had not started, but to get her to quit humiliating me in front of the other students I acknowledged her verbal attacks by saying "yes". She said nothing to Bobby Vo who came in with me. In fact to quote Bobby, "She practically climbed over me to get to you." Joy Moore and Susan Herde came in after me and Bobby. Professor Curcio made some
