

We hope you will give this considerable thought and discussion with whomever you feel would be involved in such a decision. It would be possible for some of us to meet with you later this fall (I just had back surgery and am not able to travel at this time). In the meantime, we can send resumes, blueprints, pictures, etc. upon request. Samples of work could be sent if desired.

We look forward to hearing your thoughts on this venture.

Sincerely,
