

Furthermore, it galls me how hypocritical we Americans are. We are shocked and dismayed at the atrocities being committed on other human beings in places like Bosnia-Herzegovina. Yet, we ignore those acts committed by Americans on other Americans. Not just to Native Americans, but to all minorities. Look what happened to Rosewood, Florida back in 1923. We Americans can be as cruel as any other group of people.

In closing, I must say that it must have been destiny that I caught the last 15 minutes of your interview with Charlie Rose, a while back. I am an avid channel changer. I was flicking the remote when I paused momentarily at his program - I had never seen his show before. But something made me stop and watch. Well it didn't take too long to figure why!

The very next day I bought your book, and my life has been changed forever. You have enlightened me and created a sense of pride of my heritage that I will be forever grateful. God has laid a tremendous task upon your shoulders. Forevermore, I will include you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.

Forever thankful,

Jim Dentley
