Dear Chief Mankiller:

In regards to your letter dated January 31st, the auction held on October 5, 1992 was the estate sale of Colson and Wilma Mankiller. We were led to believe that it was the sale of your mother's estate.

I apologize for any confusion this matter may have caused. As a tribal member, I assure that I would never knowingly misrepresent to the public

We are attempting to notify all persons concerned in this matter for full refunding. Our recourse will be with the auctioneers who confused the matter.

I have this date sent Mr. G.A. Buder III of Eureka, MO a letter offering full refunding.

Thank you for your assistance. If I can be of further service, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Richard E. Smith, Jr.
